Dear Mary,

Foreman fled toe make-up room rather than face me, and now Buie is refusing to, though he is on the intended whitewash show of this week that with a hard fight I got onto. He is leaving before I come on, with the station to say it is because he regards me as an irresponsible writer. I should have more such enemies and a few less friends as some are friends!

I'll be opposite Dwyer, noe judge, former prosecutor. If I have time, we'll have a go-round!

But this is o tiring. I spent two days fighting to prevent the uncontested whitewash, having to do it by phone at that, and with the producer between me and management and lawyers. You may enjoy my persuasions some day when you are here again. I have them. Some of the words are not used in best circles of our generation.

Books en route to me and as soon as I get, I'll send.

Hope you are all, esp. Buck, good shape.

Best from both,
HW
